

Paying for Peace: Alternatives to Military Spending

A 'peace learning day' hosted by Sheffield Quakers and organised by Northern Friends Peace Board

When: Saturday 9th May 2009
10.30 am – 4.00 pm

Where: Sheffield Central Quaker Meeting House,
St James Street

- What are the costs of depending on the military for our security?
- What are the alternatives?
- What can we do to promote positive change?

The day will be a chance to hear a number of speakers on the theme, to discuss different aspects of it in more detail and to work towards an understanding of how we might work for change. It is open to all.
